Article 1: These guidelines are stipulated in accordance with Article 28 of "The University Act," as well as with the "Feng Chia University Laws and Regulations," in order to promote strategic partnerships in education and research through a national network of students, teachers, and universities (Feng Chia University shall hereafter be referred to as 'FCU').

Article 2: Deleted.

Article 3: As a general principle, the total number of inter-university course credits taken each semester should be a maximum of one-third of the total credits allowed per semester. However, students who postpone their graduation may not be subject to this limitation.

Article 4: After receiving written approval from the student's department or graduate institute administrator, the Registration and Curriculum Section will forward the inter-university course selection application to the partner university.

Article 5: Course credit fees, computer training fees, and language training fees will be collected from students enrolled in inter-university courses.

Article 6: Academic achievement records for students enrolled in inter-university courses shall be handled in accordance with FCU's relevant regulations.

Article 7: Students enrolled in inter-university courses must comply with the relevant regulations of the university where they are taking the courses.

Article 8: If an inter-university course selection regulatory agreement exists with the university where a student is taking courses, then the procedures for selecting courses shall be handled in accordance with that agreement.

Article 9: These guidelines were adopted during an administrative meeting and ratified by the president of FCU, and promulgated. In addition, they were submitted to the Ministry of Education for future reference. Revisions shall be handled in the same manner.

Article 10: In the event that the meaning, connotation, or interpretation expressed in these
English-language guidelines differ from the original Chinese-language version, the Chinese-language version shall be taken to be correct and true.
